

Individual Provider Time Submission

Are you an Individual Provider (IP) with questions about your time? When is my time due? Where is the pay calendar? How do I correct an error? What do the icons on DirectMyCare.com mean?

Consumer Direct Care Network Washington (CDWA) has many helpful resources to assist with time entry and the questions that come up! Learn More

One of our IPs, David, is such a pleasure to speak with and is always so uplifting and friendly when he calls or comes into the office for an appointment. ASIDE from the friendliness and kindness he shows me, he is the greatest with his Clients. - SC Lori

Tools for Calm Course

Learn practical ways to deal with the stress and challenges in your life. This is an instructor-led webinar course which you can attend from home.

Tools for Calm is a weekly, one-hour course which you attend over six weeks. IPs who have a Continuing Education (CE) requirement will receive one CE credit for each session they complete. You must take all six sessions of the Tools for Calm course to receive six CE credits. Learn More

Paid Time Off

Effective July 1, 2024, per the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA), IP paid time off (PTO) accrual changed to one hour of PTO for every 23 hours worked. Previously, it was one hour of PTO for every 24 hours worked. To learn how to see your PTO balance, enter PTO, and more, check out our PTO guide. Click the button below.

Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)

Did you know IPs can request PPE for use when providing care to Clients?

Ordering is just a few clicks away! For detailed instructions on how to request PPE, click the button below.

How to Request PPE

What to Know About PPE Requests:

- The PPE requested must be used while providing care to a Client.
- A request must be made for each Client you provide care to.
- One kit per Client can be requested each month.
- The COVID PPE kit contains an N-95 mask. This kit requires a medical evaluation and test fit to be used effectively.

Virtual Appointments

CDWA offers virtual appointments via Zoom. Get support, when you need it, from the convenience of your home. No need to visit one of our office locations. Pick a time that works for you and schedule a virtual appointment today.
